DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(c), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(c) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 17 September 2009 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 9 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In regards to claim 9, it says the at least one fiber forming material comprises an adhesive component, then it states that optionally contains an adhesive component. Is it required, or optional? Is Applicant stating that the fiber definitely has an adhesive component, but the material it is made of may or may not contain the adhesive component?

In regards to claim 11, it is unclear what Applicant is stating. Is Applicant saying that the percentages of each component varies as they are being extruded, or that the percentages change after production due to some sort of breakdown/dissolving of the chemicals while in use?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Joseph et al (5238733) in view of Forte (6114024).

Joseph teaches an apparatus for pressure extruding fibers comprising multiple reservoirs, plurality of valves, and a mixing chamber (Figures). While Joseph essentially teaches the invention as detailed, he fails to teach three reservoirs, which Forte teaches (Figures). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to have utilized such a multiple of reservoirs as taught by Forte in the device of Joseph, so as to create the ideal composite filament as necessary based on need. The ordinarily skilled artisan would have appreciated the benefits, and known to add another reservoir as is well known in the art. In regards to the differences between a spinnerette and a die, a spinnerette is a type of die. In regards to the materials used in the apparatus, these are inconsequential to the structure of the device beyond requiring the device be capable of using them and making the desired fiber, which it is.

Double Patenting

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

7. Claims 1, 3-6, 8, 9, and 12-16 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 7, 12, and 15-17 of U.S. Patent No. 6753454. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because each teaches the identical materials and structure, just using different terms such as hydrophobic and therapeutic performance additives. Likewise, the use of the article as a medical dressing.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 17-24 are allowed.

9. Claims 2, 7, and 10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
